NARRATIVE

On the above specified date and time, (RV) [REDACTED] came to Southern Station to file a report. [REDACTED] told me the following:

On 06/15/18 at approx. 0800 hours, [REDACTED] stated that she encountered (S) Unknown on Market and Spear Streets. [REDACTED] alleged that (S) began lecturing her about what she cannot do and sell on the sidewalk. [REDACTED] said that (S) began telling her not to shove her. [REDACTED] said that (S) then got her phone and said that she was calling Dispatch. [REDACTED] said that (S) then engaged a bystander as a witness to the incident as it was unfolding.

[REDACTED] said that (S) did not identify herself to her and she felt harassed by (S)'s approach and by her lecture. [REDACTED] said that she recalled seeing (S) at one of the community meetings.

[REDACTED] wrote a (E) statement which I seized and booked at Co. B.

[REDACTED] made me watch the video that she took from her phone. The video depicted (S)'s full face being recorded by [REDACTED] and (S) repeatedly said, "Don't shove me." (S)'s tone of voice was normal and not threatening on my observation. On the next video, (S) was depicted calling then talking to someone on the phone whose full conversation I did not follow. Thereafter, (S) engaged with a (W) Unknown bystander, whose conversation I did not fully follow but the gesture was (W) was agreeing with (S) and she was providing her number to (S). When (S) was about to receive and write (W)'s number, (S) said that she will just give her business card to (W) instead, at which (W) readily agreed. I observed in the midst of (W)'s and (S)'s interaction, [REDACTED] was filming (W) as well and (W) told her to move away from her and not to be in her space.

I asked [REDACTED] why (S) was lecturing her? I followed my question whether or not she had a permit to peddle her art work. [REDACTED] then said that she wants to exercise her First Amendment.

[REDACTED] did not provide a copy of the video but she stated that the video can be viewed from her phone when needed.

[REDACTED] did not have further information to add.

I provided [REDACTED] a Follow Up form with a case number.
